Lone Prairie Items

Herman Phillips and Mr. Mc Curry were Melrose visitors Saturday.

Messrs. Murphy and Laneve went to Clovis with hogs the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Peas called at H. B. Phillips' last week.

Messrs. McDaniel, Laneve, McQuality and Phillips went to Clovis on business last week.

It would be nice indeed for the Clovis people to have a nice Park, but the very idea of wanting the county to furnish the money to make Clovis a Park. I am surprised at Prof. Mersfelder, when the claim holders are taxed already more than they can pay. He had better come out and spend a while on a claim and see what it is to keep the wolf from the door and pay taxes for the pleasure of others. Not half of the people of Curry County would ever see that Park so I say let Clovis make a Park at their own expense.

H. R. Justus and family visited at H. B. Phillips' Sunday.

John Young was elected a s one of the school board in this district.

Quite a snow fell Tuesday.

An Easter Carol.

The Master walked where lilies grew,
So fair, so pure, so white,
So glorious in Judah's land,
So lovely to the sight.

His eyes saw beauty in their form
As folded in his breast,
He lingered o'er the sweet perfume,
The flowers he loved best.

The lily bell in purest bloom
Is spotless as the snow,
Dear emblem of a risen life
And heavenly afterglow.

Our Jesus died and rose to life,
Foretelling these shall be,
A blessed resurrection day
And immortality.

The risen Lord has conquered death,
We only die to live;
We sow the seed, the flower gain,
So Christ new life shall give.

This holy Easter we will sing
New carols to the Son,
Who took away the sting from death
And victory o'er it won.

—Mrs. C. E. Lord

Let Something Good Be Said

When o'er the fair name of friend or foe
The shadow of disgrace shall fall; instead
Of words of blame, or proof of this and so
Let something good be said.

Forget not that no fellow being yet
May fall so low but love may lift his head;
Even the cheek of shame with tears is wet
If something good be said.

No generous heart may mainly turn aside
In ways of sympathy; no soul so dead
But may awaken strong and glorified
If something good be said.

And so I charge you by the thorny crown
And by the cross on which the Savior bled
And by your own soul's fair renewal
Let something good be said.

The Womans Club will have a called meeting next Tuesday afternoon at the Guild.
